NASHVILLE UNION.

To Union Men Everywhere.

Friends, we have fairly commenced the publication of an unconditional Union journal in Nashville, and so far as it has been possible for us to have access to the post-offices of Tennessee, it has been a wonderful triumph, and has won the hearty approval of the people. But the mails are at present confined to a narrow limit, and consequently our Andrew Johnson patronage cannot grow rapidly south of the city of Nashville. We therefore Jordan Stokes, Wilask all who feel a desire to have a loyal newspaper published in this city-one which will bring to light hundreds of Wm B Stokes, De James R Hood, Hamcrimes and outrages committed by the Edmand Cooper, Bed- R M Edwards, Brad rebels during their ascendancy over us, and which the guilty authors believed would never be brought to light-to come up immediately and sustain us, by sending in subscriptions and advertising. It will be of infinite importance to the Union cause in this State to have an uncompromising Union journal published at the capital of the State. The task of conducting such a newspaper Wm Roberts will be a most arduous and responsible John York, one. But we have laid our hand to the Burn if Beuder plough, and we wish to do our work well P W Maxes and honorably. Will not our Union Thes Johnson friends in all parts of the county pour CA Fuller. in their subscriptions? Strike while M.J.Farrington, Sh. the iron is hot! Let us keep the flag of the Union, of law and order, streaming defiantly in the very face of the enemy, as he sullenly retires to the Gulf.

Postmas- Ira Posch. ters are directed to return to the Dead Letter Office "all letters held for postage, or attempted to be sent with stamps previously used, or stamps cut from stamped envelopes, and unpaid letters for foreign | Wm Don Son countries on which prepayment is required."

3. Letters to which the old stamps DRD rose have been affixed, and letters inclosed in envelopes bearing the old stamp, are treated like any other unpaid letters.

4. Letters from soldiers may go forward without prepayment (the postage to be collected at the office of delivery), provided that each letter shall be endorsed "Soldier's Letter," and such endorsement signed by a field or staff officer, or "at detached posts or hospitals, it may be signed by the chaplain or surgeon. soldiers, and so endorsed, must be prepaid as other letters.

5. It is not advisable to send registered and valuable letters to soldiers in the field by mail. Every post-master is required by law to hold registered letters until they are receipted for by a person authorized to receive them. They cannot be sent out in military mails, by which soldiers usually receive their let. they could not load it for fear of being

6. Unpaid letters cannot be sent out in military mails, until the postage is paid at the office to which they are charged on the way-bill, unless the postmaster shall lose the postage himself. It is therefore best that all letters to soldiers should be prepaid, whether from soldiers or other persons. The number of unpaid and partially paid letters which arrive daily at the Nashville post office is too great to be turned into the military mails without payment of postage.

7. Officers who endorse " Official Businew" on their letters, are informed that such endorsement does not entitle their letters to pass through the mails free age being paid.

Capturing a Gun.

There is an old chap in the Berdan sharpshooters, near Yorktown, known as "old Seth." He is quite a character, and is a crack shot—one of the best in the regiment. His "instrument," as he terms it, is one of the heaviest telescopic rifles. The other night at roll call "old Seth" was non est. This was somewhat unusual, as the old chap was always up to time. A Sergeant went out to hunt him up, he But letters to soldiers, not being from being fearful that the old man had been After perambulating around in the advance of the picket line, he heard a low "halloo."

"Who's there?" inquired the Sergeant. "It's me," responded Seth; "and I've eaptured a secesh gun."

"Bring it in," said the Sergeant,"
"Can't do it," exclaimed Seth. It soon became apparent to the Ser-geant that "old Seth" had the exact range of one of the enemy's heaviest guns, and picked off by him.

Again the old man shouted: "Fetch me a couple of haversacks full of grub, as this is my gun, and the cussed varmints shan't fire it again while the scrimmage lasts."

This was done, and the old patriot kept good his watch over that gan. In fact it is a "captured gun."

Would an operator on the "grape vine line" do? If so, Nashville's in.
